COLLEGE OF THE HOLY CROSS

Holy Cross

THE FITTON, FENWICK, AND CORNERSTONE
SOCIETIES WERE ESTABLISHED TO
RECOGNIZE OUR LEADERSHIP DONORS IN A
SPECIAL WAY. THE INDIVIDUALS LISTED
IN THIS PUBLICATION ARE OUR MOST GENEROUS BENEFACTORS, WHOSE DEDICATION
AND COMMITMENT TO HOLY CROSS
SETS THEM APART. THEIR SUPPORT AND
BENEVOLENT SPIRIT PROVIDE VITAL RESOURCES
TO ADVANCE AND ENHANCE THE
LIFE AND MISSION OF THE COLLEGE.

This achievement society is named after a Worcester priest, the Reverend James Fitton. In 1836, Fr. Fitton founded Mount St. James Academy, which sat on an old hillside farm near Worcester.

The Fitton Society recognizes donors whose lifetime giving to the College totals from $100,000 to $499,999.

This achievement society is named after Bishop Benedict J. Fenwick, head of the Catholic Church in Boston. Intending to establish a school for Catholic boys, Bishop Fenwick purchased Mount St. James Academy from Fr. Fitton in 1843.

The Fenwick Society recognizes donors whose lifetime giving to the College totals from $500,000 to $999,999.

CORNERSTONE SOCIETY

Once the land was purchased, the cornerstone was laid in June of 1843 for what would become the College of the Holy Cross, named after Bishop Fenwick's beloved cathedral in Boston and headed by Rev. Thomas Mulledy, S.J. Like the names of the College's founders, the names of members of Cornerstone will always be remembered.

The Cornerstone Society recognizes donors whose lifetime giving to the College has reached or exceeded $1 million.
